The purpose of the membership register and the legal basis

The purpose of the membership register is to enable and document the association's activities and organization and to actualize the rights and obligations of the association and its members.

The legal basis for the member register is Article 6.1.c (legal obligations) and Article 9.2.d (processing of specific categories of personal data). Regarding national legislation, the provisions of the Associations Act and the Accounting Act are contained.

Recipient of personal data

The personal data are handled by the EMS Secretariat. No data from the registry are disclosed to third parties - nor to states outside the European Union or the European Economic Area.

The storage period

The data are stored as long as membership continues and deleted afterwards.

Rights

Persons included in the membership register are entitled to request access to and correction of their data. As long as membership continues, members cannot request deletion of their data or to limit or oppose their use. The right to data portability is not possible under Article 20.1.a and 20.1.b.

Complaint

Persons registered in the membership register have the right to file a complaint with the Data Protection Authority.

Obligation to provide information

The Associations Act requires that the association maintains a list of all members. If the information is not provided, it is not possible to be a member of the association.
