Description:

From Picking up where Dream Girl (2008) left off, Claire is learning to command her ability to see into the future through her dreams. In addition to figuring out how to decipher her psychic gift, Claire is secretly dating her best friend Becca's brother. Turns out that Becca belongs to a secret society of do-good teen philanthropists whose mission is to spruce up the city anonymously—but someone is out to expose the group, and it's up to Claire to thwart the plot. Teen girls looking for a light read with elements of mystery, adventure, romance, and life in high society will appreciate this satisfying stand-alone sequel. Grades 7-10. --Shauna Yusko

Review An engrossing mystery novel-cum-cheeky comedy of manners. --Teen Vogue

This book has just about everything: glamour, mystery, magic, adventure and, of course, guys. --
Girl's Life

Targeted at young adults but sophisticated and funny enough to be enjoyed by all ages. --New York Resident
