Description:

Review You will find this book to be of great comfort... An intriguing read for believers and skeptics alike. -- Awareness Magazine, May 2003 --This text refers to the edition.

From the Inside Flap A Message From A Spirit Guide

"There are moments in one's life when one becomes fearful and isolated. And it usually comes from the moment of loss, or the feeling of loss, of another energy that has interacted with one forever.

The moment one feels that separation, there is usually distress.

By reading this book, that stress may be alleviated by the knowledge that it is not the end, merely a transition.

In that hope, one can move forward and fulfill and live out the life that was given to them in this dimension. By reading this book, one can come to understand that this is just a mere "bus stop" on the way to eternity. And eventually, all end up at the same destination.

"Heaven" is the reuniting of energies. That is what makes it so pristine.

Anyone who has lost a loved one, or a companion, or a son, or a daughter, husband or wife, feels a void deep within their essence. For we usually travel the cosmos in pairs. You lose half of yourself, or so you think. And you feel abandoned and fragile.

In the depths of this book there may come a reunion. Not just for those you have lost, but with the knowledge of what life is really all about.

Read the book. See for yourself. Perhaps you might think it is not true, and it can't possibly be real. But what if it is?

What if, everything you were taught is only a fragment of the truth? A part of the sentence, a miniscule paraphrasing of the paragraph?

What if there is more?

What if your loved ones are waiting for you? What if they are trying to communicate with you? What if?

Read the book. Draw your own conclusions. Perhaps one phrase or one letter will give you comfort, and that is the "soul" intent of this book.

Read it and find your comfort. And if not, continue your search, for you will find it.

We are not human, anymore. We are eternal and we tell you it is all true. But find out for yourself. Read the book. Have the courage to turn the next page to chapter one."
